

RANEY

Indie rock from Little Rock, Arkansas.

Six friends, atmospheric guitars, and songs that don't hide behind anything. Two singles in 2026, radio rotation across thirteen stations, and a first show that sold out the White Water Tavern.

Raney started in March of 2023 as a group text, and became a band in a studio above a garage after a conversation about whether anyone actually wanted to do this.

Everyone has careers and families. It has always been easier to get studio time than practice time, and the songs still start in that room — ideas built late at night, sent out to the group, and returned with melodies and words on them. There are more of them in the archive than the band has played.

The first single, Healing, arrived in February of 2026, written out of the very personal experience of grieving someone close. It picked up rotation on 104.9 The X and across the WNRN network, a review in Obscure Sound, and a place on roughly thirty playlists. Go With You followed in May, a love song about embracing uncertainty. The band is back in the studio now.

Live, they have played three shows in 2026 and sold out the first one. Most of the band has kids and day jobs. The songs get learned on weeknights, after bedtime.
